Smith,2020-05-14 For years my family and I struggled with overloaded schedules overwhelming debt and being far too enslaved to our 4 bedroom 3 bath home and excess physical possessions The things we thought we owned really owned us and living in bondage to them rendered us physically ill mentally exhausted and existing from day to day in an underlying state of misery Through a sobering wake up call God made it clear that life changes must be made and what followed was a minimizing journey that has led us to sell our home let go of about 90% of our physical possessions and eliminate 100% of our debt This book will appeal to anyone who has a desire to live a more minimal Biblical aligned life anyone who is exhausted from over indulgence in consumerism anyone who would like to downsize and reduce the number of their physical possessions and anyone who needs to read of living proof of a modern day family who is currently walking this path

Minimalism is becoming increasingly popular as people tire of being bound to their possessions and obligations Many long for a simpler life but do not know how to find it or even where to begin As we walked our own minimizing journey I often longed for a minimalism book that was written from a Biblical viewpoint and I found that there are few such books available My family and I wanted to be sure that what we were doing was not merely following after a movement but that it fully aligned with God's Word and how Jesus lived His life on earth As my attempts to find a book continually came up short I turned directly to God's Word and in depth personal study The result of that whole hearted searching is the book Biblical Minimalism It blazes the trail on the subject of Scripture based minimalism and meets a growing need Practicing 52
